

Bald Eagle

This majestic eagle is not really bald.
White feathers cover its head.

The bald Eagle lives near rivers and large lakes as it catches most of its food in the water.

It lays 1 to 3 eggs. They eat mostly fish. They also hunt and scavenge small mammals, snakes, and other birds.

The feet have knife-like talons. Bald eagles have a long , downward-curving yellow bill, and large, keen eyes.

