

Harris Hawk

It has reddish brownish wings. It has strong feet. It has brown eyes.

Its nest is made of twigs placed in a tree or yucca plant. The Harris Hawk lives in river woodlands and desert.

It eats rats, rabbits, small birds and reptiles. It lays 3 to 5 white eggs.

PHOTO: MARKHAM JOHNSON

© Aphelion
Art

Its voice sounds like a scream. Its bill is medium size and is gray on the tip. Its wing span is 3 to 4 feet wide.

