

Trumpeter Swan

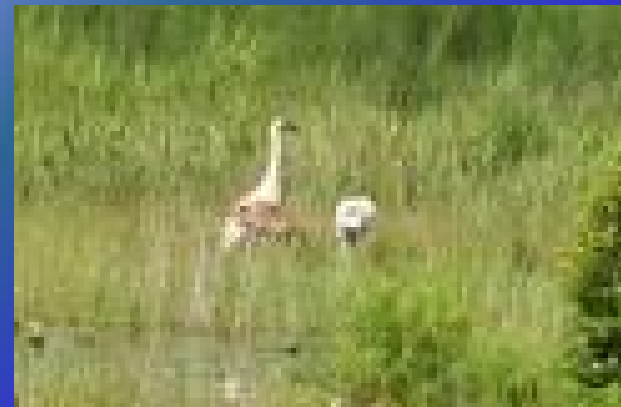

This bird is 59 to 71 inches tall.

The Trumpeter Swan has a low bill. Its Voice makes a loud low pitched bugle like Sound. you could also call it a trumpeting sound.

The Trumpeter Swan lives on lakes or near water in Alaska Canada, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming. It builds a nest on a large mound on a beaver house island.

It lays 4 to 6 white eggs.

It eats water plants and seeds.

The Trumpeter Swan is the biggest Swan.

They do not like people.

It takes 35 days to hatch eggs.

