

Northern Goshawk

They have a yellow beak. Where do they live? What do they eat?

- They make a large nest of twigs. It is placed high against the trunk of a tall tree. They live in the forest.

- It lays 2 to 4 white eggs washed with blue.

- They soar easily. They use the same nest for successive years decorating it with fresh sprigs of green vegetation.

