

The name of this insect is praying mantis. They have spiky claws. Some are brown and green and pink. Some have red eyes.

by isaias

Praying Mantis

Some live in forests. Some live where their are bugs to eat. Some live in the gardens.

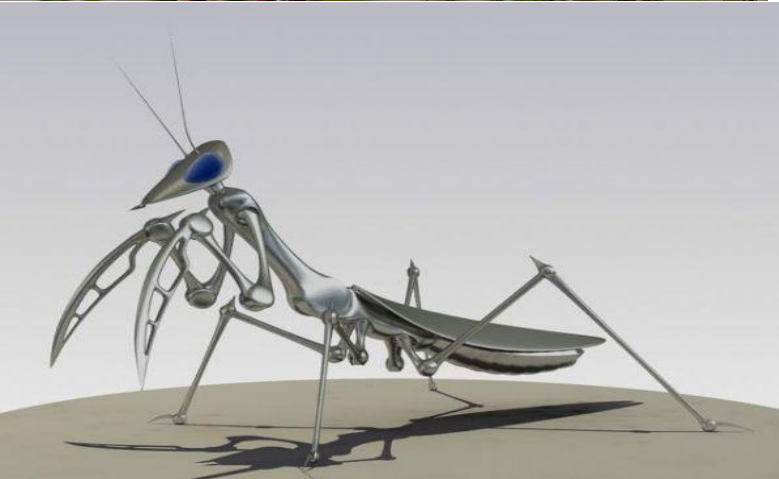

Praying Mantis

©2007 Glynn Block

It eats crickets. It eats bees to. It eats a moth.

First its born. Then it becomes in to a kid. After that it's a big praying mantis.

It looks like its praying. It has a long neck. It has a nose.

