

Grace The Witch

Once there was a witch named Grace. She had purple hair. She had red eyes and a green face. Also she had sum really BIG zits. And she has a broom and stinky feet.

Grace lived in a HAUNTED HOUSE. The house was filled with spider webs and skeletons were hanging everywhere. BUT the scariest thing of all was that the house was alive.

But one day a nice witch came over to Graces HAUNTED HOUSE and put a spell on Grace to be nice. Grace was very mad. But she was still mean because the spell didn't work until she woke up. She still had sum time to undo the spell. But she didn't have much time.

So the witch realized that Grace was up set. So the nice witch came over to Grace's house and turned her mean again. The next day when Grace woke up she was mean again. But then Grace was so mad that she turned the nice witch into a frog.

The End
