

HAUNTED ZOO

DANIELA

Once upon a time there was a monster named Hannah. She had pink hair and red finger nail's and she had long teeth down to her chin. She had eight toes on each foot.

There was a haunted zoo and it had evil animals. And it had red drippy ice. And the tickets come alive. And pink cages come alive. And there are green slimy panda's.

One day Hannah had a problem. She got sick and she had to go to the monster hospital. Then she felt like throwing up.

When Hannah felt better she got home.
And her friend's threw a welcome home party. And then they danced.
