

TRICK OR TREAT!

Halloween

Once upon a time there was a vampire named Humberto. He was scary and he hurts little baby's and moms and dads. He likes werewolf's to eat for dinner. He tricks people and grandmas. He likes to scare people. He is very spooky and he is mean. He lives in a scary house. He has spooky teeth when he bit's werewolf's. His eyes look like there frog eyes but much spookier. He has guards that are ghosts and they scare people to stop him. He has mummy's inside his house. There is scary spiders in there, even big spider's that eat people even big webs.

By Emily

Happy  Halloween

HAPPY
HALLOWEEN

Humberto lives in a haunted cave. There is a vampire spider. There are jack-o-lanterns that talk and that are mean. There are witch's that are so mean and a potion that could turn you into zombies. There are ghosts that are spooky. It is so creepy in there and ugly. There are bones at the ground if you touch one with your foot you will get trapped. There is a big huge web. There is a ghost that yells like a girl. There is a big eye.

TRICK OR TREAT!

A decorative border surrounds the text. At the top left is a large spiderweb. Along the top edge are several white ghost silhouettes. The right edge features more white ghost silhouettes. The bottom edge is decorated with four orange jack-o'-lanterns with glowing faces, interspersed with white ghost silhouettes. A small spider is visible on the left side of the border.

One day Humberto invited his friend over. The problem was that his friend Boo was a bad vampire he broke a sculpture that was his mom's favorite thing. Humberto was going to meet Boo and his mom said I will be there. He was upset because his friend Boo broke it. So Humberto the vampire was so mad he want him to get out of his house. So he broke something else. He broke his picture of his family.

A Halloween-themed border surrounds the text. At the top left is a spiderweb with a small spider. Along the top edge are several white ghost silhouettes. Along the bottom edge are several orange jack-o'-lanterns with glowing faces and white ghost silhouettes. The background is black, and the text is on a white rectangular area with a green, wavy border.

They solve it by his mom his mom said that's okay I could buy a new one. Humberto's friend said sorry and he said I could buy a new one and they said could we be friends again and he said let's go drink blood from other people and they lived happily ever after.