

Happy Halloween

Frankenstein.

Once there was a monster named Frankenstein. He lives in a creepy house. He has green skin. He is a zombie.

His house has a creepy TV.
It has creepy magazines. It has creepy toilet paper and a creepy backyard.

One day Frankenstein broke his leg when he stepped into a big huge hole. He didn't feel anything but he had to hop with one leg.

A vampire came by and put his leg back on with glue and tape. And they were friends forever.
