

FREDDY

By Sophia

One day there was a monster. The monster had three eyeballs and his name is Freddy. He went to a witches home to see the witch because Freddy is evil . He was born like that. He eats chicken and he's mean.

He lives in a haunted house. It has a talking trash can and a magic mirror. It has a flying carpet.

The next day Freddy was sad because he hated Halloween and he hates children. He gets nauseous when he's near little kids.

Then before Halloween he saw a wishing star he wished for no kids ever and he got his wish. There were only parents and he was happy at Halloween. There were pumpkins and jack-o-lanterns and black cats staring at you and there were ghosts and spirits.
