

Rosy Boa

This reptile is 36 inches long.

The Rosy boa is about 2 to 3 feet long.

It is a tan, gray, pink and yellow or red with 3 brown stripes or dark specks.

The Rosy Boa lives near streams and Springs in canyons rocky foothills and gorges. They can be found in southern Arizona And Nevada. It would be in a tree.

It eats small birds.

And mice and rodents.

It eats birds.

When it sees prey it strikes.

It mostly stays in a tree.

Its behavior is nice.

