

MOHAVE RATTLESNAKE

They are grayish-green or a greenish brown color. They have brown diamond-shaped spots which have white around them that go down middle of their backs.

The Mohave Rattlesnake grows to be 3 feet long. The females give live birth to as many as 10 babies in the late summer.

This snake eats rodents.

They usually live in the Mohave Desert.

