

The creepy monster by Mary

Once upon a time there lived a monster named Slimy the blue horn headed monster. The slimy blue horn headed monster had an evil sister and brother he didn't like his brother or sister.

This story takes place in a haunted house. The haunted house had ghosts flying around in there and huge spiders and skeletons too. There was even a case that had a vampire in it.

One day the slimy blue horn headed monster was in a rush for his haunted school and when he got there the school was in class already and he was late so he had to get a late pass.

The next day the blue horn headed monster decided to help his brother when he was hurt and he decided to help his sister when she got hurt too.

The blue horn headed monster wasn't mean for the rest of his life. He wasn't mean to his brother or sister. The blue horn headed monster had a scrape one day on his knee. He had nothing to do about it.

