

PRESIDENTS' DAY

by: Reana and Aluet

Presidents' Day began in 1971. We celebrate this holiday on the 3rd Monday of February. George Washington and Abraham Lincoln's birthday's are on or around this date. To celebrate this holiday, students write letters to the President. Presidents' Day is an annual holiday in the United States to honor George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.

