

Abby

Once upon a time there was a beautiful butterfly and she lived in a big, beautiful home. Her name was Lexi. She lived deep in the jungle. The jungle had big trees with lots of vines. There were a lot of animals like monkeys, snakes, and lions.

One day, a man with a net trapped Lexi the butterfly. Lexi got scared and tried to fly out. Then, she flew out and she was free. Then Lexi decided to move to the North Pole.
