

Crocodiles

I studied crocodiles and they are Dangerous animals. I think they are creepy because they come out of nowhere. Crocodiles eat smaller animals like fish, turtles, and birds . They also eat large animals.

The lay their eggs they hatch. The crocodile because full length in a year. The crocodile is an endangered species in parts of Central and South America. They also live in North America. These are all reasons why I think the crocodile is creepy.

By Valerie

