

Edwin and the haunted school

Long ago there lived a monster named Michael. He lived in a castle far away. He lived alone and was very mean. He had blue hair and bulging eyes. His fingernails were red and sharp. His breath smelled. He was mean.

Michael saw a party in the haunted school. Michael was mad. He walked into the party everybody stopped the party. He smashed the pumpkins.

The boy walked to Michael the boy talked to him he said, “Do you want to play?”

So then the played and had fun.

