

Ghoul

Once there was a ghost named Ghoul. He is super mean he doesn't like people. He has red hair he can float and he hides stuff that people like everywhere he can go to he mostly wants to be left alone.

He lives in a mansion it smells like armpit juice it looks green and old it feels very rough it sound's like screaming girls.

One day Ghoul's mansion exploded and he gathered all the family members he could find he is a scary monster so they wouldn't let him live with them.

Then a kid from china said don't be mean if your mansion blew up and he said sorry to all the people and now he is nice and they lived very happy.
