

Scary Head by Madison and Abigail

Once upon a time lived a monster named Scary Head. She lived in a haunted house. Every day she walked on the sidewalk scaring people. She was scary. She ate people. I called her mean. She tried to eat me.

This story takes place in haunted house where Scary Head scared people all day. She was so scary I told her, “You are scary!” and she said ok. I left to my house. I went home to tell my mom. My dog went home with me. When I was asleep my dog got out of the yard. I was sad.

It was the worst day ever. My dog was so scared. Then Scary Head knocked on the door. She brought back my dog. I told her to go away. She said sorry. I said to go she said OK.

Scary Head is a real person.

This is the end
