

Piranha

I studied piranhas and I think they are the creepiest creatures on Earth. I think they are creepy because piranhas can eat snakes. Piranhas are 13 inches long and travel in groups. They are small but they have tough skin and teeth as sharp as knives. If you get bit it will go through your skin and you will need stitches. These are all reasons why I think piranhas are the creepiest creatures. By Heath

